

Feng Xiaoming (冯晓明)

Managing Editor

China & World Economy

Institute of World Economics and Politics

Chinese Academy of Social Sciences (CASS)

Address: 5 Jianguomennei Dajie, Beijing, China. Post code: 100732.

E-mail: fengxm@cass.org.cn; fengxiaoming926@qq.com

Education:

1997-2000 Master of Economics, Peking University, China

1984-1988 Bachelor of Economics, Peking University, China

Professional Experience:

2012-2013 Consulting Professor, Stanford Center for International Development (SCID), Stanford University, USA

1999--- Managing Editor, China & World Economy, Institute of World Economics and Politics, CASS

1996-1999 Editor, International Economic Review (a bimonthly Chinese journal), Institute of World Economics and Politics, CASS

1993-1996 Portfolio investment consultant, Oriental Patron Investment Corp, Hong Kong.

Other Professional Positions:

Executive Member, China Society of World Economics

Editorial Advisor, The Chinese Scholars Network, Wiley-Blackwell Publishing

Supervisor, the Caincross Foundation (CF)

Selected Research Papers:

Feng Xiaoming, 2013, "China's charity foundations and related policy issues," Available from: <http://scid.stanford.edu/publicationsprofile/2659>.

Feng Xiaoming, 2006, "Development of RMB exchange rate derivatives after the exchange rate reform in 2005," International Economic Review, No. 9-10.

Chen Hong and Feng Xiaoming, 2006, "Social responsibility investment: Out of environmental bottleneck," International Economic Review, No. 7-8.

Feng Xiaoming, 2001, "Lessons from Chilean Experience in Managing Capital Inflows," International Economic Review, No. 3-4.

Feng Xiaoming, 2001, "Managing capital inflows: Available tools for developing countries," Journal of World Economy, No. 6.